FULFILLING OUR MISSION

The Circle of Friends for American Veterans have a large organization and a very lean staff. We support our mission of being vigorous advocates for homeless and American Veterans through the following activities:

1. Creating awareness of the problems of and the solutions for homeless veterans, through such programs as Operation United Reveille I, which in 2001 included 11 rallies and media blitzes in major cities, including Members of Congress and positive coverage by over 25 television stations. Operation United Reveille II conducted in 2004 held another 11 city rallies, bringing the message for support for veterans to literally millions of people. We have plans to undertake Operation United Reveille III in 2006.
2. Every month since 1993, monthly forum receptions hosted by our organizations provide a vehicle where leaders of America stand before the invited public to explain the programs and policies they oversee and answer pertinent questions. Over 25 Members of Congress and 30 Presidential appointees of the Department of Defense, among others have appeared since 1993. The highlights of the proceedings are reported to a larger public in a nationwide monthly newsletter, in a well visited web site and in a nationwide publication.
3. Over the years, modest checks have been written for over 25 transitional facilities with a disciplined format for otherwise homeless veterans. Veterans must be drug and alcohol free, well groomed and be willing to work. The success rate of facilities with such a format is well over 50%, setting a high standard in getting veterans back into society where they belong.
